JUDGE AND JURY

Buying groceries for a family isn't a part time job. It's a day in and day out task, requiring a knowledge of what each member of the family likes especially well. Like a court of law... every family has its judge and jury, responsible for making decisions before purchases are made. To aid you ladies in regard to this burden, may we suggest that you read the ads placed by Nationally Known manufacturers. Each ad carries a new recipe . . . a new idea or some hint to lessen cleaning tasks. Read the ads buy the products.

Post-Mortems

FRANCE has learned something from the war -too late. Only the never say-dies dare hope Great Britain has learned its lesson in time. The United States alone of the fire givernments has a clear chance to profit by the experience of others

A lot ilitarian state fights a totalitur n war does not ue one hand behind its back. It does not put a tip on its rapier it fights with every resource at its command to the death. The soldier at the front and the mechanic who fits fuses to bombs are equally important and equally disciplined industry labor management, capital — everything - our be commundeered for the single objective of winning the

This is contrary to the spirit of the totallingan state a victima. Because they are unaccustomed to regimentation and louthe II they injust themselves to the essential discipline of war only with severe pain and serious delay. Even when it fell France still had not musicred its om oleic wartime potentialities. Only recently has Brit-in abandoned its notion of a cut-rate half-

The free governments have been challanged to accomplish by cooperative enterprise and submission to dicintorial nuthority what authoritarian governments have accomlished by coercion and terrorism. The challenge has not been a taunt from a hustling rival but on edict of destruction from a purposeful execuioner. In all the post mortems being performed on the world that is dving no discovery is more important than the effect of totalitarian war on victims unwilling to engage in it on equal terms

Bear Hug

PERHAPS Russia is under Adolf Histor's thumb-a trained bear on a chain If that's the case there's nothing for either party to worry about When Hitler says Stop Russia

But if that isn't the case there's plents for both parties to worry about It cannot be denied hat Russia is giving Germany a bear highit is a matter of maps not conjecture. With control of southerstern Finland Estonia Latvia Lithunnia and part of Poland Russia is moving for ward in southern Furope through Rumania The gene il effect is that of surrounding Ger-

There is only one circumstance under which the Russian push into Europe could be viewed as of no consequence. That would be complete. understanding between Dictators Hitler and Mussolini and Dictator Stalin. No one ever has hinted that such a thing is possible. Propaganda departments are working overtime to make it appear that Hitler and Mussolini planned it this way but when did diciators plan to weaken their own positions?

Hitler in a White Suit

THE handling of dramatic elements by the Nazis has been better than average Few tricks are being missed

But occasionally they slip They slipped when they posed Adolf Bitler in a white suit standing with a crowd of dark su fed men at the fomb of Napoleon Bonaparte

Two things about the picture stood out-the memory of Napoleon and the presence of Hitler It was just a little too obvious that the latter will be lucky to equal the place in history of the former which is that awarded to a man with an over-developed just for power whose military prowess made it exceedingly difficult to get rid of him Apparently, though some men don't care how they're remembered as long as they in sure they won't be forgotten. On that score Hiller's already a roaring success. He won't be forgo ten

"Democratic Party Left Me" Willkie Says in Explaining Political Shift

- The G. O. P. Standard Bearer-

By MOBGAN M. BEATTY AP Writer

"Tell him," said Wendell Will-kie, "that I haven't left the Democratic party; the Democratic

It's the mock reply when people ask why the president of Commonwealth and Southern and his vife changed their registration to monwealth and Sodies registration to Republican, why. Withitse turned from a New Deal becaser who put $150 in the campaign pet for Rocevell in 1932, into a Republican leader.

Wilkie, with his blaning fresh Indiana voice, enjoye glying that answer when a neckler from the gallery popt the duestion, and it wows the audience. Since childhood, Willish has nesticeed in individual freedom. He holds, two, that large corporations sanely run are efficient, and give management on epipertunity to serve the public at bargain prices, where smaller unite fail.

Wilkie knows this corporation efficiency stems from one-man or small-group declaims. By many accounts, he himself has been a me-man bost of the system he ran, a system spread through ten. perating companies into several Willize a careless of clothes and half. He admits he thinks an Indiana thank and shebbiness of dress is an asset in his business. He owns up to a joint fortune with his wife of a half million dollars.

A man of british candor, yet he is full of all the tricks of the oratherist torical trade, a political "it" man who bowled over a presidential nomination with a crew of amateurs.

AMERICAN

Amid bands blaving from the upper deck and unitome theory from the troud on those, the thoubout arrived to bring heart throbs, languter and gayety no error communities. Traditionally American, it still survives,

Since 1870 when the first casks of Wiedemann's Fine Beers were brewed almost within sight of the showboat landing at Newport, Kentucky, Wiedemann's Beer has gone out to inland America, adding to the joys of living. Its character and fine flavor are as wholesome and as traditionally American as the river shows...its mellow goodness has brought pleasure to four generations. It has "the taste you remember with pleasure."

Always ask for Wiedemann's at your favorite cafe and at your grocer's.

FOAM SEALED

Every bottle of Koerber's Pilsener is "foam sealed" to protect its metchless Revor... That's why thousands are switching to KOERBER'S

Bottling is by a costler, oxygen-controlled method that brings the beer to you with flavor unim-paired. When you add to this precess, the skill of master brew-ers...when you add the fact that Koerber's uses only the best of flored least and eventual as on Ingradients, and exercises a care in sanifation and in aging that is unsurpessed . . . it explains why Koerber's Pilsener is best.
